November 2019

Scope: Contemporary Research Topics (Health & Wellbeing) – there after known as Scope (Health & Wellbeing) - is peer-reviewed and published annually in November by Otago Polytechnic/Te Kura Matatini ki Otago, Dunedin, New Zealand.

The journal Scope (Health & Wellbeing) aims to engage in multidisciplinary discussion on contemporary research in the landscape of health. It is concerned with views and critical debates surrounding issues of practice, theory, education, history and their relationships as manifested through the written and visual activities, such as original research, commentary, and critical debates concerning contemporary researchers, industry, society and educators in their environments of national and international practice. Scope's focus is on building a sense of community amongst researchers in New Zealand and the international community.

Scope is a non-profit publication with open access online. An online version of the journal is available free at www.thescope.org; ISSN (for hardcopy version): 2537-8872; ISSN (for online version): 2537-8880.

Scope: Contemporary Research Topics (Health & Wellbeing) 5, “Collaboration” (November 2020)

The fifth issue will provide the opportunity for authors to consider, discuss and debate how collaboration is understood in relation to health and wellbeing. Papers presented will showcase work from the 2019 ANEC (Australasian Nurse Educators Conference) entitled “Navigating the future of nursing together”. This event held at the Dunedin Centre focused on themes relating to Practice, People, Place and Purpose will publish in conjunction with occupational therapy, midwifery and sport, with a focus on research and community projects which attempt to (re)build and (re)foster the dialogue about collaboration for health and wellbeing.

Submissions for Scope (Health & Wellbeing) 5, “Collaboration” are invited from researchers, educators, industry, writers, theorists and historians. Submissions should be sent in electronic format by 30 March 2020 for review and potential inclusion in the annual issue to Associate Professor Jean Ross (Editor-in-chief) at Otago Polytechnic/Te Kura Matatini Ki Otago, Private Bag 1910, Dunedin, New Zealand at jean.ross@op.ac.nz. Please consult the information for contributors below or online versions for examples. Peer review forms will be sent to all submitters in due course, with details concerning the possible reworking of documents where relevant. All submitters will be allowed up to two subsequent resubmissions of documents for peer approval. All final decisions concerning publication of submissions will reside with the Editor. Opinions published are those of the authors and not necessarily subscribed to by the Editors or Otago Polytechnic.

Please refer to author guidelines for submissions at <https://www.thescope.org/contributors>. For further questions about submissions please contact the Editor-in-chief at jean.ross@op.ac.nz.
